COCKTAILS

These cocktails are inspired by the history and heritage of the hotel, from the deep rooted association with spies and espionage, the local produce grown on our kitchen garden, and the honey produced in our rooftop hives. We hope you enjoy.

ST. ERMIN'S LONDON DRY GIN

A beautifully smooth with an impressive provenance.

Handpicked botanicals from our rooftop garden and honey harvested from our beehives were delivered to the award-winning Hawkridge Distillers who then weaved their magic to create this refreshing and uplifting spirit.

Our gin is infused with mint, lemon verbena, lemon balm, lavender, blue basil, geraniums and honey. These heady citrus notes give way to a juniper heart and a refreshing fruity late note all smoothed with our honey.

Our gin is also available to enjoy at home, please ask at reception to purchase a bottle, or purchase a bottle (or two!) online at shopstermins.co.uk. Priced at £75 per bottle. Please drink responsibly.

Gracious, friendly service

On arrival our guests are greeted by our welcoming doormen, each wearing a bowler hat.

St. Ermin's London dry gin, vermouth, lemon, honey

Vesper | £18

A history of espionage and intrigue

The hotel and bar have a long-standing association with spies, including the Cambridge
Five. So here's our take on the classic martini.

St. Ermin's London dry gin, vodka, Lillet blanc

Gin & Tonic | £15

Classic and Timeless

Just like great hospitality, some things never go out of style.

St. Ermin's London dry gin, paired with Franklin & Sons tonic, specifically chosen to enhance our gin's flavours.

THE CAMBRIDGE FIVE

The "Cambridge Spy Ring" used as the inspiration for our cocktails below, comprised of five gentlemen recruited by the KGB whilst undergraduates at Cambridge University in the 1930s. The men went on to attain high office within the British establishment, becoming known as the infamous group of double agents named the Cambridge Five. Philby, Burgess and MacLean all worked for MI6 during the war, from offices in this hotel, and would have used the Caxton Bar to pass their secrets to their Russian handlers.

orange bitters, chocolate bitters

SHAKEN, NOT STIRRED

Shaken or stirred, dirty or dry, our martinis come with a twist of espionage.

As well as a being local for real life spies, Caxton Bar was also a haunt of Ian Flemming, the creator and author of James Bond. Whether taking inspiration from our history of spies, as in "From Russia with Love" or taking time to while away the hours, our history of espionage and the influential people that sat here is truly intriguing.

Vesper Martini | £18

Invented by Ian Flemming, Bond chose his "Shaken, not stirred".
Sipsmith London dry gin, Belvedere vodka, Lillet Blanc, lemon twist.

WINE FLIGHTS

Flights are the perfect opportunity to discover new tastes. Enjoy three smaller glasses, all carefully chosen to complement each other and heighten their own distinct qualities.

HOME & AWAY £20

Pinot Gris, Heppington Estate, Canterbury, Kent, UK

A refreshing wine with citric notes, floral and white melon notes

Sauvignon Blanc, Wairu River, Marlborough, NZ

Clean and crisp, bursting with minerality and white stone fruit flavours.

Expressive on the palate, finishing with great length.

Langham Estate Dorset Chardonnay, Crowthorne Dorset, UK

An unfinned, unfiltered and vegan wine. Has aromas of kiwi and melon due to a sunny vintage, that also contributed for its rich and creamy finish

BOLDNESS £20

Roaring Meg, Pinot Noir, Central Otago, New Zealand

Red fruity flavours. Raspberry. Red cherry. A hint of spice

Sangiovese Merlot, Leono Rosso, Orcia, Tuscany, Italy

Ruby red colour, hints of red berries on the nose. Tasting you will find spice and smokiness well balanced by sweet red fruits

Malbec ES Vino, Gualtalary, Argentina

With sweet and round tannins, this is a wine with good intensity and full of berries.

A long finish full of flavour.

CRAFTED G & T

SINGLE MALT WHISKY

SPEYSIDE

The biggest region in terms of production, half of all Scottish distilleries can be found here. Speyside single malts are noted in general for their elegance and complexity, sometimes with a refined smokiness but more often a fruitiness ranging from ripe pears to sultanas.

HIGHLAND

By far the biggest region geographically, the Highland malts inevitably embrace wide and robust flavour variations. Generally heavier and drier in character compared to other regions, whiskies from here often have nutty, honey, heather or peaty notes. Distilleries near the sea also have some salty, maritime influences in their malts.

LOWLAND

There are only a handful of Lowland distilleries still operating, producing softer, lighter style single malts that are traditionally known as the 'Lowland Ladies'. Whiskies from here are known for their malty, zesty flavours with slightly fruity, citrusy and sometimes floral notes.

ISLAY

Pronounced "eye-luh", this is the greatest of whisky-producing islands. It is only 25 miles long but has no fewer than eight distilleries. It's covered in peat which is exposed to rain and sea spray. Harvested and used to malt the barley used in distilling, the peat gives the single malts here their characteristic smoky flavour with some salty, seaweed notes.

AMERICAN WHISKEY

KENTUCKY BOURBON

Bourbon may be produced anywhere in the United States where it is legal to distill spirits, but most brands are produced in Kentucky, where bourbon production has a strong historical association. Bourbon's general flavour profile can be characterised as having big vanilla, oak, and caramel notes.

JAPANESE WHISKY

MOUNT KAIKOMAGATAKE

Japanese whiskies are crafted in the Scottish style. Delicate and perfumed with honeyed sweetness. Light sherry and floral notes, sometimes they have been peated for a smoky style.
